Dear

ID

Congratulations on your admission to Drexel University! To help you make your Drexel education more affordable, we are pleased to offer you the following financial aid award for the 2012-2013 academic year. Please keep in mind that this award is based on your enrollment in the program listed in the chart at the top of page two and on the information you provided on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If updated information becomes available through enrollment changes, FAFSA corrections, federal verification of FAFSA data, or changes to your proposed program of study or housing choices, this award may be subject to change.

This packet includes the following materials:

- Steps to Finalize your Financial Aid
- Financial Aid Award
- Alternative Award Scenarios

To view financing options that may help you with your expected educational costs for the upcoming year, please view our Financing Options Guide at www.drexel.edu/financialaid/optionsguide/. This packet also includes important document requirements that you will need to provide to Drexel in order for your financial aid to be processed and a list of alternative award scenarios should you decide to change your concentration or residential status.

Your award(s) listed on the enclosed Financial Aid Award will be accepted automatically. It is your responsibility to notify the Financial Aid Office if you are receiving aid from outside sources (i.e., private scholarships, tuition remission), if the assumptions mentioned in the box on page two are incorrect, or if you wish to decline any of the aid offered. This information may require reevaluation of your aid package. All notification about changes must be made in writing via the Web at <http://ask.drexel.edu>, fax at 215-895-6903, or U.S. mail.

If you have any additional questions or would like to discuss options to make a Drexel education affordable for your family, please contact our call center arranged with EdFinancial Services at 1-877-DREXEL-5 or visit <http://ask.drexel.edu>.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you. Best wishes for a successful academic year.

Sincerely,

Melissa M. Englund
Assistant Vice President, Enrollment Planning and Retention Services
